"No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you."
John 15:15

Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do.

Please pray for our Priests, Seminarians and Deacons

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these special men. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

DECREE

Dear Monsignors and Fathers,

As a Diocese on the Gulf Coast and a culture deeply rooted in love of family and community, there are two devotions I wish to promote for the edification of the people entrusted to us: Saint Medard as a patron for protection against hurricanes and Saint Raymond Nonnatus as the patron of expectant mothers and those struggling with infertility.

Saint Medard — Each year we face hurricane season with prayer, prudential preparation, and the virtue of hope. From their French roots, many of our Cajun and Creole people have maintained a devotion to Saint Medard, a Sixth Century French Bishop (affectionally called “Samida” mimicking the French pronunciation), invoking his aid in hope of fair weather. Though no longer on the General Roman Calendar of Saints, he remains in the Roman Martyrology (cf. Martyrologium Romanum) and his traditional feast day of June 8 coincides with the beginning of hurricane season. As such, I am hereby designating June 8 to be our Annual Day of Prayer for Protection Against Hurricanes at the beginning of the hurricane season. In observance of this, I ask you to implement two practices in your parishes and with those entrusted to your care:

- When June 8 falls on a ferial day, offer a Votive Mass of Saint Medard, using the Common of Pastors (Bishop) in the Roman Missal and inserting his name where appropriate.
- Encourage people to pray the enclosed prayer of protection against hurricanes, concluding with the invocation “Saint Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.”

NB This liturgical celebration would be in addition to my promotion of the Prayer for Hurricane Season written by Bishop Maurice Schexnayder, our second Bishop, written in 1957 following the brutal Hurricane Audrey.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend J. Douglas Deshotel, DD
Bishop of Lafayette

Mrs. Maureen K. Fontenot, PHR, SHRM-CP
Chancellor

Saint Raymond Nonnatus — An increasing number of families are struggling with infertility, about 19% of women of child bearing years (Center for Disease Control). In 2020, Pope Francis called attention to the power of Saint Raymond Nonnatus’ intercession on behalf of those struggling to conceive. In a spirit of pastoral solicitude for these couples struggling to express their natural vocation to fatherhood and motherhood (cf. Genesis 1:28), I am hereby designating his traditional feast day, August 31st as an Annual Day of Prayer for Couples struggling with infertility or difficult pregnancies. As with Saint Medard, I ask you to implement these two practices:

- When August 31 falls on a ferial day (a weekday upon which no special feast of the General Calendar is to be celebrated), offer the Votive Mass of Saint Raymond Nonnatus using the Common of Pastors (Priest) or Common of Holy Men (Religious): inserting his name where appropriate.
- Encourage the faithful to pray the enclosed prayer for Saint Raymond’s intercession for expectant and hopeful mothers.

The Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy, notes that “the spiritual life of the faithful is also nourished by the pious practices of the Christian people.” (CDW) I believe that, as priests, our experience validates this truth. The Second Vatican Council in no way wished to abolish authentic expressions of faith consistent with Divine Revelation (despite false assertions). Rather, the Council wished to buttress the complementarity of our devotions with the Divine Liturgy.

Many people admire the fidelity of our Catholics. We who live and minister among them know their secret — the people of Acadiana are a pious and prayerful people. May it be so always! Please know of my gratitude and esteem for you and your tireless mission for the salvation of souls.

ADDITIONAL PRAYERS FOR DIOCESAN LITURGICAL CALENDAR

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to you, loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with you Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Imprimatur: August 29, 1967

by Bishop Maurice Schexnayder

Saint Medard, patron of protection against Hurricanes, pray for us.

Prayer to Saint Raymond Nonnatus

Heavenly Father,
you raised up Saint Raymond Nonnatus to be a preacher of the Gospel,
a liberator of the enslaved, and a hope for mothers.

Through his powerful intercession,
we beseech you to pour forth your blessing upon all pregnant women,
all families mourning miscarriages,
and all couples struggling with infertility.
Shelter them with your protecting hand,
console them with your gentle love,
and grant a gracious answer to their fervent prayers.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Saint Raymond Nonnatus, pray for us.
