*Dear Father Crochet

Thank you so much for hosting that generous celebration of my ordination with my family! I look forward to offering a Mass for y'all as a grateful foretaste of the reward you will receive for giving more than a "a cup of cold water."

Alumni Fundraiser

Dear Tigerette Alumni,

During your years at Loreauville High School, you have helped to build a legacy as part of the Tigerettes Dance Team. Since the inception of our program in 1969, that legacy has only grown and flourished.

Your current Tigerettes would like to honor you and all past dance team alumni at the LHS vs. CHS football game on October 25th, 2024.

This year's team is super excited about their invitation to compete in Orlando at DTU Nationals. As a team fundraiser we would like to offer this amazing alumni package for you.

For a minimum donation of $40, your package will include a one-of-a-kind Tigerette Alumni t-shirt. It will also include a pre-game reunion with a viewing of old dance team memorabilia, a chance to mingle & catch up with past dancers, enjoy some food and beverage, a sideline view of the halftime performances brought to you by the LHS Tigerettes and LHS Marching Band as well as a chance to wave to fans as you take your stand as a Tigerette Alumni.

All of you know how much work and dedication it takes to be a part of this program and our team of dancers want nothing more than to continue the legacy you have helped create.

We hope you can join us, but if you can't we hope you still consider donating to this year's team and help these girls get to nationals to represent our wonderful school and the Village of Loreauville.

With Love & Tiger Pride,
2024-2025 Loreauville High School Tigerettes

Annual Baby Bottle Campaign

This weekend we kick-off our Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit The Unexpected Pregnancy Center, which serves Iberia, St. Mary and St. Martin parishes. Because of your generous donations, the center has been able to provide pregnancy testing consulting, ultrasound imaging, maternal-family education, as well as adoption information and other life-affirming services to the pregnant women in need, all free of charge. Since opening in 2018, the center has served hundreds of women in our community. Also, we have had over 100 abortion-prone women who had a change of heart and who decided to choose life after visiting The Unexpected Pregnancy Center.

Baby bottles will be available after all services today and may be returned to the collection area of the church next weekend with donation inside.

Online donations can be made using the QR code found in the bottles or the return box.

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Don't wait until a priest retires or is transferred to celebrate their service. Like Father's Day, let today — Priesthood Sunday — be the one day a year when we make it a point to make priests feel truly appreciated and special.

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor Priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the Priesthood in the Life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the U.S. Council of Serra International and is celebrated on the last Sunday of September.

Priesthood Sunday specifically honors Priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered and Sacraments could not be celebrated. Priesthood Sunday is for those who cultivate close working relationships with their Priests and therefore could benefit from a special day to express their gratitude. It's a chance to thank and honor Priests in unique ways.

It is essential to note that the number of Priests and Ordinations in the United States has steadily declined in the past 50 years. Meanwhile, the number of parishes without a resident Priest Pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. The men who answer the call to Priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before.

1. Are you a Baptized Catholic, but not Confirmed?
2. Have you been Confirmed and want to delve deeper into your Catholic faith?
3. Are you a non-Catholic discerning the Catholic Faith?

Prayer For Vocations

Heavenly Father, bless Your Church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those You have called to the married state and those You have chosen to live as single persons in the world the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of Your Son so that in Him, with Him and through Him we may love You more deeply and serve You more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Therese of Lisieux's Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep Your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown.

Keeping (or Making) Catholic Education Great
by George Weigel

According to the Vatican yearbook, the Annuario Pontificio, there are north of 5,000 Catholic bishops in the world today. They share certain characteristics and attributes. But I doubt that there is any other among them who would open a pastoral letter on “The Joy and Wonder of Catholic Education” as Bishop James Conley of Lincoln, Nebraska, recently did:

I am not one of the millions of children who received a Catholic education in this great country. Nor was I Catholic when I showed up as a freshman at the University of Kansas in the early 1970s. My main interests at the time were basketball and the Grateful Dead, and KU had them both!

Bishop Conley is a friend of long standing, although I have never been able to appreciate his appreciation for the Grateful Dead — any more than I could appreciate the affection of distinguished Polish Dominicans I know for Deep Purple. “60s Gold” is one of my most-listened-to stations on Sirius XM (which may confirm the views of some that I’m a closet Modernist). But I draw the line on electrified Sixties’ music at the Byrds, the Mamas and the Papas, Chicago, the Grass Roots, and Creedence Clearwater Revival. Or thereabouts.

But I digress.

In his pastoral letter, which should be read by every Catholic educator at every level of Catholic education, Bishop Conley describes his conversion to Catholicism amidst his undergraduate experience of classic liberal learning and the Great Books at KU. He then borrows from our mutual friend, Vancouver’s Archbishop J. Michael Miller,

CSB, to propose five “essential marks” of an authentically Catholic education. Let me briefly note those, offering my own reflections on each as a supplement to Bishop Conley’s explication of what we might call “Miller’s Marks.”

An authentic Catholic education is inspired by a supernatural vision. We are not congealed stardust, the fortuitous result of impersonal cosmic biochemical forces that just happened to result in ... us. No, we are creations, formed by a loving Creator for Eternal Communion within that Creator’s light and love. We learn our true dignity as human beings when we come to know that we are made in the image and likeness of God. Catholic education thus liberates us from cynicism and its cousin, despair, to live in awe and wonder at what we are, and how everything that is came to be.

An authentic Catholic education is founded on a Christian anthropology. We are not made for self-satisfaction alone. Nor are we individual monads, sentient billiard balls careening around a terrestrial pool table and occasionally colliding. There is a human nature, and that human nature is ordered to holiness. We are made to be saints, and we become saints through relationships with others called to holiness by the sanctifying, triune God. Catholic education should thus inspire a burning desire to be more, rather than just to have more, even as it helps us understand that “being more” is a work of grace, not merely of my efforts. Catholic education should draw us to be like Christ, who, as Vatican II taught, reveals the Truth about us as well as the Truth about God.

An authentic Catholic education is animated by communion and community. The “actors” in Catholic education — students, parents, teachers, coaches, administrators, consecrated religious, priests, deacons, bishops, philanthropists — are like the cells of a living body: each distinctive, but each intrinsically related to all the others. That communion is best experienced in a Catholic school’s spiritual and sacramental life (especially in the Eucharist), but also through a Catholic education that immerses us in beauty through music and the visual and dramatic arts. Catholic education is also education for responsible citizenship, not a bunker in which to hide from the surrounding cultural chaos: catholically educated Catholics work to convert the culture, and thereby renew public life.

An authentic Catholic education is imbued with a Catholic worldview throughout the curriculum. Chemistry is chemistry, physics is physics, and math is math. A Catholic education, though, will approach those disciplines as doors through which we come to know the Divine Ordering of the universe, not just the Periodic Table, Relativity Theory, or quadratic equations. All truths tend toward the Truth, Who is God. Catholic education fosters that sensibility.

And authentic Catholic education is sustained by Gospel witness. Truly Catholic schools are shaped by truly Catholic teachers and staff, who model Christian Virtues in their own lives and urge their students to live those Virtues in service to others.

In that kind of education lies the hope for rescuing our culture, our nation, and indeed, our civilization.

George Weigel is Distinguished Senior Fellow of Washington’s Ethics and Public Policy Center, where he holds the William E. Simon Chair in Catholic Studies. He is the author of over twenty books.
